

Charles Bartz joined Berchwood Partners in 2009. He has 30 years of experience in institutional investments and has focused on alternative investments over the last 13 years, working with a broad range of domestic and international investment strategies and products, including private equity/buyouts, venture capital, mezzanine, distressed debt, infrastructure and real estate.

Prior to joining Berchwood, he was responsible for the oversight of new business/origination efforts as well as the management of legal, compliance and finance functions at C.P. Eaton Partners. Prior to that, he served as the lead pension investment officer at The Pillsbury Company and Continental Can Company and then moved to a marketing role, representing a variety of international and domestic products, at Posthorn Global Asset Management, Creditanstalt Global Asset Management and Washington Square Capital.

Charles received his BA from Macalester College, his JD from William Mitchell College of Law, and his MBA from the University of St. Thomas. He has obtained his series 7, 63, and 24 licenses, and is registered with the Financial Services Authority.